“Live Without” is a smooth, emotionally resonant Pop/R&B record that captures the clarity and quiet strength found after leaving a manipulative relationship. Unbothered yet deeply honest, the song is grounded in self-worth and emotional release. It naturally fits late-night playlists, healing spaces, and modern R&B moments that communicate through restraint rather than volume.

This early 2026 release marks the opening chapter of SHVŇ’s evolving artistic narrative, as she begins to guide listeners through a sonic journey of heartbreak, healing, and self-discovery.
